² Special Students on Study Away are included in the above tables and are not counted in the totals.
