

Watson Institute: Global Governance Visiting Faculty Spring 2009

- Yishai Blank, senior lecturer at Tel-Aviv University's Buchmann Faculty of Law. Blank holds an SJD and LLM from Harvard Law School and an LLB and BA from Tel-Aviv University. He clerked for Aharon Barak, former chief justice of the Israeli Supreme Court. He has received numerous fellowships and prizes, and is a member of the Young Scholars in the Humanities and Social Sciences Forum of the Israeli Academy of Sciences and Humanities. His research interests are torts, legal aspects of the globalizations of cities, local government law, law and space, and law and political thought. He is the author, with Shai Lavi and Roy Kreitner, of Critical Modernities: Politics and Law beyond the Liberal Imagination (a special volume of Theoretical Inquiries in Law) (2007), as well as of law journal articles.

INTL1150: The City and The World: The Legal Aspects of the Globalization of Cities

INTL 1800T: Fundamentals of American Legal Thought and Their International Impact (Seminar)

- Bhupinder Singh Chimni, professor of international law and chairperson at the Centre for International Legal Studies, School of International Studies, Jawaharlal Nehru University in New Delhi. Bhupinder sits on a variety of boards, including editorial boards, and is general editor of Asian Yearbook of International Law. Among his research interests are international trade and economic law, globalization, Third World, international refugee and humanitarian law, and human rights. He is the author and editor of numerous publications. His most recent books are with Antony Anghie, Obiora Okafor, and Karen Mickelson eds., The Third World and International Order: Law, Politics and Globalization (Leiden: Martinus Nijhoff, 2003); and with B.L.Das, Saman Kelegama, and Mustaffur Rahman eds., South Asian Yearbook of Trade and Development, 2006: Multilateralism at Cross-roads: Reaffirming Development Priorities (New Delhi: Wiley India, 2006). Bhupinder received his PhD from the University of New Delhi, LLM from the University of Bombay, LLB and BA from the University of Punjab.

INTL 1801A: International Law and the Third World (Seminar)

DEVL 1000: Development, Third World, and International Institutions (Seminar)

- Dennis Martin Davis is a judge at the High Court and judge president of the Competition Appeal Court of Cape Town and honorary professor of commercial law at the University of Cape Town. Davis holds an MPhil from the University of Cambridge and a BComLLB from the University of Cape Town. His recent research has focused on competition and administrative law, constitutional law, human rights and litigation, and socio-economical rights. He is the author and co-author of several books, including Income Tax Cases and Materials (1995) and numerous journal articles.

INTL 1800Y: Human Rights: From Politics to Law (Seminar)

DEVL 1800C: Labor Regulation and Globalization (Seminar)

- Kerry Rittich, associate professor of law at the Women and Gender Studies Institute, University of Toronto. Rittich received her SJD and LLM from Harvard Law School. She also holds an LLB from the University of Alberta and a BMus in performance from the University of Toronto. Among her research interests are gender issues in law, labor law and policy, global social governance, and economic and social rights in emerging African democracies. Among her many publications are, with Atleson, Compa, Sharpe, and Weiss, Cases and Materials on International Labor Law (forthcoming, West Publishing, 2008) and, with Joanne Conaghan, Labour Law, Work and Family: Critical and Comparative Perspectives (Oxford University Press, 2005).

INTL 1050: Globalization, Governance, and Equality

INTL 1800X: Gender and Work in the New Economy (Seminar)

- Robert Sze-Kwok Wai is associate professor and associate dean at Osgoode Hall Law School, York University in Toronto. Wai received his SJD in international law from Harvard Law School. He also has an LLB from the University of British Columbia, an MPhil from Oxford University, and a BCom in economics from McGill University. His recent research is in interlegality of transnational private law, transnational governance, and trade law and development. He is the author of a variety of journal articles and other publications.

INTL 1200: The Law of International Trade Regulation

INTL 1800Z: Transnational Law and Global Business Regulation (Seminar)