

Why So Slow?

The Advancement of Women in the Academy

A Talk by Virginia Valian, PhD

Friday, September 12th

3:30 pm

Smith-Buonanno 106

(Pembroke Campus)

Reception to Follow

Dr. Valian, Distinguished Professor of Psychology at Hunter College and Co-Director of Hunter's Gender Equity Project, will use psychological, cognitive and linguistic, sociological, and biological concepts to explain gendered disparities in professional advancement.

Her discussion of "gender schemas" makes visible factors that impede women's progress, and suggests ways to ensure fair treatment of women and men at the University.

Presented by the ADVANCE Program at Brown University
