Date & Time Reported	Incident Type	Location	Summary/Disposition
05/02/09 5:18am	Assist Providence Police / Arrest Assist Other Agency	RISD Public Safety	A Brown police officer was dispatched to the RISD Public Safety Office regarding a Brown student in custody. A RISD public safety officer stated that she observed two subjects spray painting a RISD sign. After a brief foot pursuit she apprehended one of the individuals. Providence Police took the student into custody. The student was going to be charged with vandalism.
05/03/09 2:03am	Property Damage	J. W. Wilson	While on patrol an officer observed two male subjects, later identified as Brown students, on top of the overhang of the main entrance. The students climbed down from the overhang as the officer requested. The officer then observed damage to the card access reader at the main entrance. The card reader was hanging from the wall by several wires. The students stated that they stepped on the card access reader in order to climb to the top of the overhang. The case has been turned over to Student Life.
05/05/09 4:39pm	Assist Providence Police / Larceny	Cooke Street	While on patrol a Brown University police officer observed a vehicle with a smashed window. It was discovered that the vehicle belonged to a Brown employee. Upon arrival to the vehicle, the employee stated his GPS and accessories were stolen from the glove compartment. Providence Police arrived on scene and took a report.
