October 9, 2008 – October 15, 2008

Date & Time Reported	Incident Type	Location	Summary/Disposition
10/09/08 12:51am	Brown University Offense Six Theft or Attempted Theft	Brown and Bowen Streets	While on patrol an officer observed five males removing street signs. The males were located and they produced signs from under their shirts. The signs were four way signs that attach to the bottom of stop signs. The students also produced the tools that they had used to remove the signs. They were instructed to return the signs to their proper locations. A short time later, officers observed that the signs had been attached in the proper manner. The matter has been turned over to Student Life.
10/10/08 10:04pm	Assist Providence Police / Larceny	Brown and Bowen Streets	Complainant found the passenger side window of his vehicle smashed and a GPS and owners manual were taken. Providence Police responded and took a report.
10/11/08 9:18pm	Larceny	Olney Margolies Athletic Center	Student stated that his wallet and cell phone were taken while he was playing basket ball. The items were left unattended on top of his back pack on the floor. There are no suspects at this time.
10/12/08 1:07am	Assist Providence Police / Miscellaneous	Ives Street	Officers were dispatched to assist Providence Police with a loud off campus party. The residents were all Brown students and one of them was issued a noise violation.

Date & Time Reported	Incident Type	Location	Summary/Disposition
10/12/08 1:39pm	Breaking & Entering / No Force	Sears House	A Brown student stated that he left his dorm room at about 7:30pm on 10/10/08. When he returned to his room 10/11/08, he noticed his laptop gone. His roommate told him that the laptop was gone when he got in at about 11pm on Friday. The student stated that he did not report the laptop missing on Saturday when he got in because he wanted to email his friends to make sure no one borrowed it. As of this time no one has any knowledge of anyone using the laptop.
10/13/08 4:46am	Dangerous or Disruptive Behavior	John Hay Library	Officers were dispatched for an alarm activation. Upon arrival they saw that the alarm indicated stairway three, roof access. They responded to the roof and found that the door was unlocked. They entered the roof area and found two subjects sitting on the roof. The officer asked the subjects what they were doing on the roof. They stated they entered near the Carrie Tower and ended up in the John Hay Library and they then were trapped in the stairwell and could not exit the building. Upon investigation, they learned one was a Brown student and one was not Brown affiliated; however, he had a Brown identification card in his possession. The subject stated that he is visiting his friend and he gave him the ID to gain entry to his room.
10/14/08 12:05pm	Narcotics Violation Weapons Violation	VG Quad B	An officer was dispatched to meet with Residential Life staff and a dean regarding a health & safety inspection. Two students were found in their room smoking marijuana. They turned a plastic baggie containing marijuana over to DPS. Also, a knife was displayed on the wall and was confiscated by DPS. The matter has been turned over to Student Life.
