

Sweet Honey In The Rock[®]

Dubbed a
"National Treasure."
by First Lady
Michelle Obama

FREE workshop: "Social Activism and Song" Thursday, November 11, 4pm

Africana Studies/Rites & Reason Theatre
155 Angell Street, Providence

Famous for their vocal virtuosity and vast repertoire of historically African American music, this Grammy award-winning a cappella ensemble has been called "An exuberant expression of the human voice and spirit."
by The Washington Post.

SPACE IS LIMITED, REGISTRATION REQUIRED
register at <http://tinyurl.com/28lco4u>

Don't miss Sweet Honey In The Rock in concert An Electrifying Evening of Life, Love and Song Saturday, November 13, 7:30pm

VMA Arts and Cultural Center
vmari.org, 401-421-ARTS (2787)

STUDENT TICKETS AVAILABLE

firstworks
connecting art with audiences

[cac]

CREATIVE ARTS COUNCIL
BROWN

Presented by FirstWorks with support from Brown University Creative Arts Council in partnership with Department of Africana Studies/Rites and Reason Theatre, Brown University