Living With Grief: Ethical Dilemmas at the End of Life

Wednesday, April 20, 2005
1:30 p.m. - 4:30 p.m.

Sponsored by the Center for Biomedical Ethics, Brown Medical School
Location: Rhode Island Hospital, George Auditorium

HFA's 12th Annual National Bereavement Teleconference will focus on "Living With Grief: Ethical Dilemmas at the End of Life." This educational program, moderated by Cokie Roberts, ABC News Political Commentator and NPR Senior News Analyst, will be broadcast live via-satellite, Wednesday, April 20, from 1:30pm to 4:00pm EDT. An expert panel will examine issues regarding the social perspectives of medical ethics and how various health care settings may influence ethical decisions in hospitals, nursing homes and hospices. A distinguished panel of ethicists, educators, gerontologists and hospice experts will define, differentiate and demonstrate the interrelationships between values, ethics and law in health care settings, and examine how cultural differences may influence ethical choices.
