

COMMUNITY GARDENS IN PROVIDENCE: SEEKING PERMANENCE

by

William Stump

Thesis

Submitted in partial fulfillment of the requirements for the Degree of Bachelor of Arts in the Center for Environmental Studies at Brown University

May 1988

TABLE OF CONTENTS

CHAPTER 1: INTRODUCTION	1
CHAPTER 2: HISTORY OF COMMUNITY GARDENS	9
1893 - World War II	9
Community gardens of the 1970s.	14
Providence area gardens.	17
CHAPTER 3: JUSTIFICATION OF COMMUNITY GARDENS	25
Justification of urban parks	25
Community gardens and Olmsted's parks	27
Tranquility	28
Physical therapy.	30
The park: fostering community and development	31
The community garden: fostering community.	32
The community garden: a foundation for development	35
Inhibiting vandalism	39
Education	40
Economics	40
Addressing criticisms of community gardens	43
Why community gardens need to be treated like parks	49
CHAPTER 4: PROVIDENCE POLICIES AND POLITICS	51
Examples from other cities	51
Role of Providence government	54
Analysis of options	64
Policies	64
Politics	67
Other site selection issues	68
CHAPTER 5: CONCLUSION	71