Kathryn Wasserman Davis Scholarships in Critical Languages

These grants are merit-based and are intended for individuals with demonstrated interest in one or more of the following areas: foreign languages, international, global or area studies, international politics and economics, peace and security studies, and/or conflict resolution. The grant covers the full comprehensive fee for one summer at the Middlebury Language Schools, plus transportation to and from Middlebury's Vermont campus and program related expenses. One summer of intensive immersion language at Middlebury is the equivalent of one full year of language study taken during the regular academic year. Language study levels include beginner to graduate level in Arabic, Chinese, Russian, Japanese or Portuguese. There are additional intensive immersion summer programs at Middlebury College for other languages but this grant is not intended for them.

Émigré Memorial German Internship Program

The Émigré Memorial German Internship Program—German State Parliaments (EMGIP) is a fellowship program that provides U.S. and Canadian students with internships at a German state parliament (Landtag). Internships afford students an excellent opportunity to gain government work experience, improve their advanced German language skills, and learn about German culture firsthand. EMGIP is ideal for students planning on pursuing careers at a regional level of government in the U.S. or Canada, or who have an interest in a specific policy issue such as the environment, education and / or healthcare. EMGIP runs three times a year—fall, spring, and early summer—for one to three months, depending on elections, holiday schedules and state offices' preferences. While participants have some flexibility as to when they would like to do their internship, late summer and the winter holiday season are not feasible. Applicants must be fluent in German.
