

IV TRANSATLANTIC CONFERENCE AT BROWN UNIVERSITY

Call for Papers

Independencias

On the occasion of the bicentennial of the Latin American independences, our IV Conference will include papers on ideas, memoirs, travels, genres, narratives, and reinscriptions of the period, as well as modern and contemporary practices of change and the new.

Proposals on the liberal tradition, education and citizenship, models of mestizaje and hybridization the politics of memory, migrations, and postcolonial historical writings are welcome.

The Conference also invites proposals on the participating writers:

Elena Poniatowska, Alfredo Bryce Echenique, Mario Bellatín,
Florencia Abatte.

Co-sponsored by Hispanic Studies, Center for Latin American Studies,
Instituto Cervantes de Nueva York, Ministerio de Cultura de España,
Universidad de Guadalajara, Mexico, Fondo de Cultura Económica.

April 9-12, 2008

Send an abstract by November, 20th to:

Julio Ortega
Hispanic Studies, Box 1961, Brown University,
Providence, RI 02912

Registration: students ($75), professors ($100)

Organizing committee:

María Pizarro Prada, Ezio Neyra, Daniella Wittern, José Ramón Ortiz

Information: maria\_pizarro\_prada@brown.edu