

*T*hursday *L*ecture *S*eries

The History Department is pleased to sponsor seven lunchtime talks during the fall semester. Showcasing new research by leading and emerging scholars, these lectures will offer an opportunity for faculty and graduate students to chart the future direction of the discipline.

All talks will begin at 12:10 in the Hillel Chapel Room, corner of Brown St. and Angell St.

- September 17 Robert Self, Department of History, Brown University
There's Nothing the Matter with Kansas: Family, Sex, and Politics at the End of the American Century
- September 24 Jeremy Mumford, Department of History, University of Mississippi
*Ethnography, Ethnocide, and Social Engineering:
The 'General Resettlement of Indians' in Sixteenth-Century Peru*
- October 1 John Logan, Spatial Structures in the Social Sciences, Brown University
New Uses of Historical GIS: Immigrant Incorporation in the 19th Century City
- October 15 Judith Surkis, Department of History, Harvard University
A Tale of Two Scandals: Legal and Sexual Conflict in French Algeria
- October 29 Palmira Brummett, Department of History, University of Tennessee
Mapping The Early Modern Ottoman Empire: Imagination, Circulation, and the Image/Text Interface
- November 12 Robert Sommer, Humboldt University, Berlin
Camp Brothels: Sexual Slavery in Nazi Concentration Camps
- December 3 Conevery Bolton Valencius, History of Science, Harvard University
Vernacular Science: The New Madrid Earthquakes of 1811-12 and Early American Scientific Imagination

_____Please contact Seth_Rockman@brown.edu with any questions_____