

2008-2009

FALL 2008

September 25th

The History of Children's Play in the U.S.: Change and Continuity

Howard Chudacoff

Brown University

October 23rd

Getting In Sync: Communication and Gestures in Autism

Inge-Marie Eigsti

University of Connecticut

Location TBA

November 6th Lipsitt-Duchin Lecture

Predicting and Preventing Adolescent Behavioral Misadventures: 50 Years of Discovery in Rhode Island

Steve Buka

Brown University

Salomon 101, The DeCiccio Family Auditorium, 4-6pm

November 13TH

Language in Autism: Developmental, Psycholinguistic and Neuroimaging Perspectives.

Helen Tager-Flusberg, Ph.D.

Boston University School of Medicine

December 4TH

Topic TBA

Jesse Snedeker

Harvard University

SPRING 2009

February 5th

Unequal Educational Beginnings: Socio-Economic Status and Parental Involvement in Children's Schooling in Japan

Yoko Yamamoto

Brown University

February 26th

Sleep Disparities and Daytime Functioning in Young Adolescents: Implications for Schools

Amy R. Wolfson, Ph.D.

College of the Holy Cross

March 19th

Concept Formation in Infancy: The Role of Domain-General Mechanisms

David H. Rakison, D.Phil

Carnegie Mellon University

Please note all lecture will take place in Sharpe Refectory, Dining Rooms 8/9 from 12-1:15pm, until otherwise noted.

2008-2009

April 9th

Linguistic Risk Correlates of Psychopathology in Young Latino Immigrant Children Growing up with Two Languages

Claudio Toppelberg, MD

Harvard University

April 16th

Global Challenges in Human Development: Realizing Developmental Potential

Carol Worthman

Emory University