During the senior year, all concentrators must take at least one course from among the Literary Arts offerings (this course may be one of the 10 courses listed above):

Course Number	Course Name	Semester Taken

Among the ten required courses, at least four must be at the 100-level or above., No more than a total of four classes (workshops or reading/research courses) may be taken at another institution. No more than two of the ten required courses for the concentration may also count toward fulfilling a second concentration. (Check with your other concentration advisor regarding that program's rules as to whether courses may count toward more than one concentration. The stricter limit will apply...) The program's three digit code for filing a concentration is 717.
