

*George Auditorium – Rhode Island Hospital Simulcast at Newport Hospital – Library Video Room

June 1, 2012

Speakers:

Cathleen Adams, MD, Chase Samsel, MD

Triple Board Residents

The Warren Alpert Medical School of Brown University

Jodie Senouillet, MS

Program Coordinator of TALC

Panelists including members of TALC

Topic:

Teens Taking Responsibility: Impact of Positive Youth Development Programs on Transition to Adulthood among Adolescents with Chronic Illness

Objectives:

(At the conclusion of this session, participants should be able to)

- Identify psycho-social barriers to transition affecting children and adolescents who live with chronic illness
- Describe TALC as a model transition program based on a positive youth development approach
- Recognize educational, vocational and transition outcomes among TALC participants

June 8, 2012

Speaker: Karyn Horowitz, MD

Clinical Assistant Professor of Psychiatry and Human Behavior

The Warren Alpert Medical School of Brown University

Director, Outpatient Services-Bradley Hospital

Topic:

Child and Adolescent Suicide: What You Need to Know as a Pediatrician

Objectives:

(At the conclusion of this session, participants should be able to)

- Recognize who is at risk for suicide
- Describe the essential elements of a suicide risk assessment
- Identify treatments for children/teens at risk for suicide
- Locate local and national resources for providers, families, and children
- Describe current efforts at Suicide Prevention and Post-vention in Rhode Island

June 15, 2012

Shortened Grand Rounds Educational Awards Ceremony

Speakers:

Delma-Jean Watts, MD

Assistant Professor of Pediatrics (Clinical)

Jennifer Friedman, MD, PhD

Associate Professor of Pediatrics

Adam Pallant, MD, PhD

Associate Professor of Pediatrics

Pediatric Residency Director

The Warren Alpert Medical School of Brown University

Topic:

Residency Education on a New Track: BRIGHT Global Health as a Model of the Future Resident Education

Objectives:

(At the conclusion of this session, participants should be able to)

- Describe new methodologies and mandates in training the next generation of pediatricians
- Describe and share the success of the BRIGHT Global Health training track as a successful model

June 22, 2012

Speaker:

Sara Becker, PhD

Assistant Professor (Research) of Child and Family Psychiatry

The Warren Alpert Medical School of Brown

University

Topic:

Adolescent Substance Use: Epidemiology, Practice Guidelines, and Clinical Challenge

Objectives:

(At the conclusion of this session, participants should be able to)

- Describe prior studies documenting the prevalence and course of adolescent substance use
- Identify trends in the U.S. adolescent substance use treatment system
- Contrast different evidence-based interventions for adolescent substance use in light of common clinical challenges

June 29, 2012

Speakers:

Thomas Murphy, MD

Chief Resident, Pediatrics

Bonnie O'Connor, PhD

Professor of Pediatrics (Clinical)

Adam Pallant, MD, PhD

Associate Professor of Pediatrics (Clinical)

The Warren Alpert Medical School of Brown

University

Topic:

Brave New World: Practicing Pediatrics in an Era of Health Care Reform

Objectives:

(At the conclusion of this session, participants should be able to)

- Identify impacts of the Affordable Care Act on health care and pediatrics in the USA
- Describe the impact upon residency education
- Discuss new inter-professional models of training and direct pediatric care for our region