

Department of Pediatrics Grand Rounds

November 2009

Friday Mornings 8:30 – 9:30 A.M.

*George Auditorium – Rhode Island Hospital

Hasbro Children's Hospital
The Pediatric Division of Rhode Island Hospital
A Lifespan Partner

*Simulcast at Newport Hospital

November 13, 2009

Speaker(s): Nils Bergman, MD, DCH, MPH, PhD

*International Lecturer and Promoter of Kangaroo Mother Care; Honorary Senior Lecturer, Department of Child
and Adolescent Health, Faculty of Health Sciences, University of Cape Town, South Africa*

Topic:

“Perinatal Neuroscience and Skin-to-Skin Contact”

Objectives:

(At the conclusion of this session, participants should be able to)

- Describe how the brain makes the body behave, and what behavior choices the newborn has.
- Define Kangaroo Mother Care, both in terms of basic biological needs and its three components.
- Explain the effects of separation on the newborn.

This Grand Rounds is Sponsored in part by The March of Dimes*

*ATTENTION!!

PLEASE NOTE VENUE CHANGE FOR NOVEMBER 20th WILL BE LOCATED IN

NURSING ARTS 5

*November 20, 2009

Speaker(s): Linda Snelling, MD

Associate Professor of Pediatrics and Surgery (Clinical); Medical Director, PICU and Inpatient Pediatrics

* VENUE CHANGE ****
NURSING ARTS 5 !!

Topic

"The Status of Pediatricians in the Medical Community (And what to do about it)"

Objectives:

(At the conclusion of this session, participants should be able to)

- Discuss the demographics of pediatricians.
- Recognize potential effects of the changing workforce in the status of pediatricians.
- Identify how to project competence and confidence.
- Discuss how to negotiate effectively.

November 27, 2009

NO GRAND ROUNDS

Happy Holidays!!

