

‘SOCIAL EXCLUSION, INEQUALITY, AND HEALTH IN NEW YORK’

Hilary Silver and Peter Messeri

SOCIAL INEQUALITIES	-> MEDIATING NEIGHBORHOOD CONDITIONS	->	HEALTH (current incidence, prevalence, mortality)
African-American	Segregated neighborhood effects (Central Harlem)		Diabetes
Latino ethnicity	Environmental Hazards Rodents Old (pre-1940) housing Lead paint [Cockroaches and other asthma “triggers”]		Animal Bites Tuberculosis Asthma
Socio-economic status (Percent in poverty)	Access to Care Local hospitals and health organizations Exposure to Risky Behaviors Unprotected sex Drug abuse, smoking Alcoholism Obesity		Cardiovascular Congestive Heart Failure Hypertension STDs HIV AIDS Homicide Alcohol dependence Mental Health (self-reported)
SOCIAL RUPTURES ->
Isolation from Networks (live alone, language isolation)
Social capital, social cohesion and social control (local voluntary associations)
Social support (household structure)			Infant mortality
Collective efficacy (% residents moved in last 5 years)			