

A. ALFRED TAUBMAN CENTER
for Public Policy and American Institutions

Brown Bag Series

"Encountering American Faultlines: Race, Class, and Immigrant Incorporation"

Professor Jose Itzigsohn
Associate Professor of Sociology

12:00 Noon
Tuesday, September 22

Taubman Center Seminar Room
67 George Street

This talk describes the experience of incorporation of Dominicans in Providence. It examines the socioeconomic position of first and second generation Dominicans, the identities that they develop, and it analyzes the ways in which Dominicans organize to create a place for themselves in Providence and in American society.