Eric B. Schnurer (A.B. '80) wrote speeches for President Jimmy Carter while still a student at Brown. He went on to work as a speechwriter, press secretary, policy advisor, legal counsel, and chief-of-staff to Senators and governors across the country. He is now president of Public Works LLC, a nationwide consulting firm that provides policy and management advice to governors, mayors, state agencies, and members of Congress on a wide range of policy issues.
