

Brown University and AIA Narragansett Society Community Archaeology Day

Saturday, October 17, 2015

11:00 AM – 3:00 PM

JIAAW Open House:

See ancient coins, bones, precious metals, ceramics, and other artifacts. Tour one of the oldest buildings on Brown's campus. And talk with Brown's archaeologists about their fieldwork all over the world!
(Rhode Island Hall, 60 George Street)

Archaeology of College Hill Excavation:

Watch Brown students digging! This year, students will be excavating at the Moses Brown School. Stop by during the dig anytime to see what we're up to or try your hand at digging.
(corner of Hope St and Lloyd Ave)

Archaeology of College Hill Excavation at Moses Brown School

(Excavation at corner of Hope Street and Lloyd Avenue. Entrance at 250 Lloyd Avenue, Providence, RI)

Come watch Brown students digging! This year, as part of ongoing work on Brown's campus and in the surrounding neighborhoods of College Hill, students will be excavating at the Moses Brown School (250 Lloyd Avenue). Stop by during the dig anytime to see what we're up to or try your hand at digging. All are welcome!
