

SCOTT EDWARD ANDERSON is the author of Azorean Suite: A poem of the moment/Suite Açoriana: Um poema do momento (2020), Falling Up: A Memoir of Second Chances (2019), which recently received the 1st Literary Award of Letras Lavadas, given in conjunction with PEN Açores; the Nautilus Book Award-winning Dwelling: an ecopoem (2018); and Fallow Field: Poems (2013). His poetry received the Nebraska Review Award. In 2018, he participated in the Disquiet International Azores Residency on São Miguel Island, from which his great-grandparents emigrated in 1906. He is currently working on a translation of Vitorino Nemésio's classic Corsário das Ilhas for Tagus Press and a research-driven memoir about his Azorean Portuguese heritage titled The Others in Me: A Journey to Discover Ancestry, Identity, and Lost Heritage. For more on the author go to scottedwardanderson.com.

- - -

SCOTT EDWARD ANDERSON é o autor de Azorean Suite: A poem of the moment/Suite Açoriana: Um poema do momento (2020), Falling Up: A Memoir of Second Chances (2019), que recentemente recebeu o 1.º prémio de Literatura de Letras Lavadas, atribuído conjuntamente com PEN Açores; de Dwelling: an ecopoem (2018), que recebeu o prémio Nautilus Book; e de Fallow Field: Poems (2013). A sua poesia recebeu o prémio Nebraska Review. Em 2018, participou na Disquiet International Azores Residency na ilha de São Miguel, da qual os seus bisavôs emigraram em 1906. Actualmente a trabalhar numa tradução do clássico Corsário das Ilhas de Vitorino Nemésio para a Tagus Press e num livro de memórias sobre a sua herança portuguesa açoriana intitulado The Others in Me: A Journey to Discover Ancestry, Identity, and Lost Heritage. Para mais informações sobre o autor ir para scottedwardanderson.com.