OFFICE OF GRADUATE & POSTDOCTORAL STUDIES
PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT EVENTS – ACADEMIC YEAR 2008

Non Academic Career Panel
April 14, 2008, Mentoring Monday Series
Cosponsors: Office of Graduate & Postdoctoral Studies & Career Development Center

Making Yourself Understood: Writing for Scientists
April 14, 2008
Writing Tips
Presentation/Talk
Sponsor: Office of Graduate & Postdoctoral Studies

Inspired Mentoring: Lifting as We Climb
March 17, 2008, Mentoring Monday Series
Cosponsors: Sponsor: Office of Graduate & Postdoctoral Studies & Office of Diversity and Minority Affairs

"PI 101" - Key Advice for the New PI
January 2008: Mentoring Monday Series
Slide Presentation: PI 101
References List
Resources List
Resources for Sticky Issues

Women in Academic Science and Engineering: Pipelines, Ceilings, Progress, Challenges
November 2007 — Career Panel-Discussion:
The panel comprised oth junior/senior faculty addressing central issues facing female professors in the sciences and engineering including achieving equity in advancement and resources, prioritizing competing professional demands and balancing a career and family.
On-line article "So You Want to Be A Professor."
Cosponsors: Office of Graduate & Postdoctoral Studies, WiSE, Dean of the College, The Graduate School

Time Management and Prioritization for Trainees
October 2007 — Presentation and Workshop
Gail Alofsin, Adjunct Professor, Dept. of Communication Studies, University of Rhode Island; Director, Corporate Partnerships, Newport Harbor
A dynamic and interactive presentation lead by a communication and marketing professional to learn strategies transferable from business world to academics to make the most of precious available hours. Learned how to set priorities and increase efficiency while advancing your career and minimizing stress.

Patient Advocates in Research: New Possibilities, New Problems
September 2007 — Special Seminar
Rebecca Dresser, Daniel Noyes Kirby Professor of Law and Professor of Ethics in Medicine, Washington University
Since 1983, Dresser has taught medical and law students about legal and ethical issues in end-of-life care, biomedical research, genetics, assisted reproduction, and related topics. She is a fellow of the Hastings Center and one of the "At Law" columnists for the Hastings Center Report, the oldest and most widely read U.S. bioethics journal.
Cosponsor: Office of Graduate & Postdoctoral Studies and Graduate School