

www.brown.edu/studentemployment

WORKING AT BROWN – A GUIDE FOR STUDENTS

Brown offers a wide variety of part-time employment opportunities. The Student Employment Office is here to provide you with guidance and information on securing a job.

All undergraduate students enrolled at Brown are allowed to work.* A financial aid award is not required for on-campus employment.

BRING TO BROWN...

If you wish to work at Brown, you will need to complete a Form I-9 to verify eligibility to work.

You must bring with you:

1. Passport or
2. Driver's license and birth certificate or
3. Other documents as specified by U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services.

You may not begin working until after you have completed your Form I-9.

FIND A JOB – GETTING STARTED

1. Go to brown.edu/studentemployment
2. Select "Students" to view instructions for securing employment, getting paid and other job-related tasks.
3. Apply for jobs:
 - Apply through the website for on-campus jobs.
 - Want job search and interviewing tips? See \(Section V\) of the Student Handbook, "Getting a Job at Brown."
4. Monitor your applications:
 - Use your "Dashboard" to keep track of your applications and JobMail account.
 - Be sure to check your email for communication from potential employers.

*INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

There are a few additional details for international students to know and to navigate.

- F-1 status carries the automatic benefit of on-campus work privilege. J-1 status requires students to seek prior written permission from their program sponsor before beginning work (either on- or off-campus).
- Before international students begin work at Brown, they should consult the International Student Employment Checklist for information on obtaining a Social Security number and registering for the Foreign National Information System (FNIS).
- Office of International Student and Scholar Services (OISSS) will be happy to talk with you. They are located in J Walter Wilson, 4th floor.
- International students should never work off-campus without prior permission from the OISSS or the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS).

Sign-up for JobMail:

Be automatically notified when new jobs that interest you become available.

Have your paychecks automatically put into your bank:

Sign up for Direct Deposit

BROWN