Janet Yang holds a B.A. from Brown University in Chinese Studies and an M.B.A. from Columbia University.

As a film producer, Yang has worked with some of the most formidable directors and actors in the world, as well as discovering unique, often unheard voices and stories, and bringing them into the mainstream. In the international arena, she has been a pioneer in introducing Asian culture to the West, and representing American cinema to China.

Her best known works are The Joy Luck Club, The People vs. Larry Flint, High Crimes, Indictment: The McMartin Trial, Empire of the Sun, Dark Matter and Disney’s High School Musical: China.
