Workplace Code of Conduct for Brown University Licensees

Introduction
Suppliers who manufacture and/or sell items imprinted with Brown University indicia (to the public, Brown University departments, or student organizations) are required to be licensed by the University. Licensees operate under specific guidelines; all products and designs must be approved by the University designated partner, Learfield Licensing Partners, the items must include an "officially licensed" hangtag or label, and royalty reports must be submitted on a regular basis. Licensees must also agree to the University's Supplier Code of Conduct for Licensees.

Learfield Licensing Partners can verify that the department's choice of supplier is licensed by the University. Licensed suppliers can be found on their website: http://lrgusa.com/licensing/vendor-list/. If the supplier is not licensed, Learfield Licensing Partners can assist the supplier in becoming licensed or provide the department with a list of licensed suppliers. Creation, adoption and use of any Brown University indicia must conform to approved standards as authorized by the University.

Policy Statement
Revised March 2015

I. Introduction

Brown University is committed to conducting its business affairs in a socially responsible and ethical manner consistent with its educational, research and service mission, and to protecting and preserving the global environment. Brown University, as a member of the Workers Rights Consortium and the Fair Labor Association, has adopted this Code of Workplace Conduct for Brown University Licensees (the Code) to promote full, productive and freely-chosen employment.

Throughout this Code the term “Licensee” shall include all persons or entities which have entered into a written “License Agreement” with the University to manufacture “Licensed Articles” (as that term is defined in the License Agreement) bearing the names, trademarks, and/or images of the University. The term “Licensee” shall, for the purposes of the Code, and unless otherwise specified in the Code, encompass all of the Licensees’ contractors, subcontractors or manufacturers which produce, assemble, or package finished Licensed Articles for the consumer.

Brown University expects its licensees to conduct their business in a manner consistent with this Code, and to follow workplace standards that adhere to this Code. The Code is subject to amendment to reflect any subsequently developed standards by the University.

II. Notice

The principles set forth in this Code shall apply to all Licensees.

As a condition of being permitted to produce and/or sell Licensed Articles, Licensees must comply with this Code. All licensees and their subcontractors are required to adhere to this Code within six (6) months of notification of the Code and as required in applicable license agreements. The remedy will, at a minimum, include requiring the licensee to take all steps necessary to correct such violations including, without limitation, paying all applicable back wages found due to workers who manufactured the licensed articles, and reinstating any worker whose employment has been terminated in violation of this Code of Conduct.
