

Curated by Brown's Center for the Study of Race and Ethnicity in America in partnership with the Office of the Provost

Race & IN AMERICA

Anti-Black racism remains an enduring and foundational feature of American society that requires illumination and informed discussion. This series draws on the expertise of Brown scholars to investigate the origins, history and contemporary effects of racism in America from a range of fields and scholarly perspectives. It seeks to advance knowledge and understanding and promote a more just and inclusive community and world.

The following webinar sessions will take place monthly on Wednesdays at 12 to 1:30 p.m. over the course of the 2020-21 Academic Year

Race & Slavery | September 9, 2020

Race & Public Health | October 7, 2020

Race & Social Movements | November 4, 2020

Race & Democracy | December 2, 2020

Race & Image | January 27, 2021

Race & Punishment | February 24, 2021

Race & Genetics | March 24, 2021

Race & Anti-Black Racism | April 21, 2021

Speakers

Ronald Aubert
Lisa Biggs
Anthony Bogues
Malik Boykin
Lundy Braun
Tina Campt
Rebecca Louise Carter
Lorin Crawford
Brickson Diamond '93
Akilah Dulin
Nicole Gonzales Van Cleve
Paja Faudree
Matthew Guterl
Françoise Hamlin
Bonnie Honig
Juliet Hooker
Ashish Jha
Ainsley LeSure
Richard M. Locke
Brian Meeks
C. Brandon Ogbunu
Emily Owens
Kevin Quashie
Sohini Ramachandra
Amy Remensnyder
Seth Rockman
Melvin Rogers
Tricia Rose
RaMell Ross
Robert Self
Andre Willis

BROWN