University Resources Council

1. Charge
   a. The Committee shall serve to review, to analyze, and to offer recommendations to the President on all budgetary plans, proposals, and priorities, both current and future, affecting the University.
   b. The Committee shall be responsible for maintaining a level of awareness of budgetary matters throughout the University that will encourage the development of informed opinions and the articulation and discussion of issues.
   c. The Committee shall review, analyze and make recommendations regarding the allocation of University resources for the coming fiscal year and for long-range plans developed by the administration or by other duly constituted committees.
   d. The Committee will conduct its business in closed session. The Committee will, however, host University-wide forums as necessary and appropriate to allow the Committee to hear the concerns and priorities of the University community.
   e. The Committee shall, at appropriate points during the preparation of the University budget, report in written form to the President its analysis and its policy recommendations concerning the allocation of resources within the University.

2. Membership
   There shall be seven faculty members. One faculty member shall have the rank of lecturer or senior lecturer. There shall be seven students appointed by their respective elected representative governing body in consultation with the Provost, and two staff members appointed by the Staff Advisory Committee in consultation with the Provost. Administrators shall serve as ex-officio members and shall be assigned to the committee at the Provost’s discretion. Administrators include deans, or other senior officers directly engaged in the budget process. The student members shall include four from the College, two from the Graduate School and one from the Medical School. Student members appointed to the Committee may not concurrently serve as Officers of their respective governing body (i.e. the Undergraduate Council of Students, the Graduate Council and the Medical Student Senate, respectively).
   The Provost is the Chair ex officio. The Vice Chair shall be a Faculty member in his/her second year of service on the Committee. Normally the Vice Chair shall be elected by the Committee at the start of the term of new members.

3. Term of Office
   Professorial faculty member terms shall be three years, lecturer/senior lecturer member term shall be two years. Graduate and undergraduate student member terms shall be two years. The medical student term shall be two years with the option of serving for one year. Staff terms shall be two years.
   Terms of office shall normally begin on March 1 following the election held or appointment process conducted earlier that same winter.
4. Method of Election

   a. Each year a ballot will be prepared with two positions with two faculty members per position for election by electronic ballot by the Faculty. Candidates for each slate are to be chosen by the Committee on Nominations in consultation with the Provost after seeking nominations from the voting faculty. The candidate on each slate with the majority of the votes will serve on URC; the other candidate will serve as an alternate, as appropriate. Candidates should be representative of the divisions of knowledge in the university and diversity in the Faculty. Upon the expiration of his or her term, a member shall not be eligible for reelection until one year has elapsed, except that those persons elected for terms of one year or less may be candidates to succeed themselves.

   b. Chairs of academic divisions and departments, and faculty members holding appointments as administrative officers are not eligible for elected membership on the Committee. Members of the faculty elected to the Committee may not concurrently serve as members of the FEC.

5. Operation of the Committee

The following outlines proposed operations and schedule for the committee:

   a. The Committee will primarily meet during the fall semester.

   b. The Committee’s work will begin each academic year with an orientation on the short and long-term budget picture for the University that will present the most significant parameters affecting the University’s budget, important changes in the University’s financial situation since the committee last met, and assumptions regarding future budget variables (including, but not limited to, tuition, indirect cost recovery rates, fundraising projections, capital projects, etc.)

   c. The Committee will hear reports from senior officers about the current budgetary framework as well as short and long-term issues facing specific major budgetary units. The Committee will also hear recommendations from senior officers about proposed new initiatives.

   d. The Committee may form or appoint ad hoc subcommittees to further investigate specific issues or proposals.

   e. After the presentations from the senior officers and after holding any necessary University-wide forums, the Committee will engage in a series of deliberative meetings about the University’s short and long-term budget priorities.

   f. The committee will make an annual report to the President of its recommendations on the University priorities, and other reports as the Committee deems necessary.
