A Year in the Life of SAC
2007

The President’s Staff Advisory Committee
A Year in the Life of SAC...

- Better communicate SAC accomplishments to the Brown community
- Create a formal mechanism to engage staff, especially off-campus staff
- Create opportunities for staff to get to know students
- Engage Staff in Internationalization Effort
- Create and submit SAC budget to the President’s Office
A Year in the Life of...
“Communicate Accomplishments”

- Launched new SAC website
- Conduct staff surveys
- On-line “Staff Questions”
- Videocast of Prof. Jim Campbell
- On-line nomination and application forms
- Staff-worthy news updates
“Engage Staff”

• Ambassador Program
Since January 2007, SAC has recruited and recommended staff members to serve on the following University committees and advisory boards:

- Advisory Committee on Corporate Responsibility in Investment Policies (AACRIP)
- Bookstore Advisory Committee
- Campus Planning Advisory Board (CPAB)
- Community Council
- Computer Advisory Board (CAB)
- Energy and Efficiency Committee
- Excellence Awards Selection Committee
- Staff Development Day Planning Committee
- University Resources Committee (URC)
“Engage Staff”

Connect SAC to the University by sponsoring special events
“Engage Staff”

Connect SAC to the University by supporting Employee Programs
“Get to Know Students”

Connect SAC with Students through events like “Brown Worker Appreciation Day”
“Get to Know Students”

Connect SAC to new students and parents through participation in the B.E.A.R.S. Program
Get to know the Community...

Connect staff and students to the community through projects like Rebuilding Together Providence: Bannister House
SAC Community Outreach

Connect staff to the community through collections for:
• Food Drive for the Rhode Island Community Food Bank
• Personal Care Items Drive for Crossroads
SAC Community Outreach

Connect staff to the community through its Can Tab Collection
Other Accomplishments

- Staff/Faculty football game promotion
- Benefits/Wellness Fair
- BEAR Day ushers
- Ice Cream Social
Looking Ahead...