NON-ACADEMIC DISCIPLINARY PROCEEDINGS
July 2004 through December 2004

This report highlights the resolution of allegations of violations of the Standards of Student Conduct from the first semester of the 2004-2005 academic year. The non-academic disciplinary procedures involve either the referral of a case to a non-disciplinary resolution (e.g., mediation, a warning, a dean’s conference), a hearing with a dean in the Office of Student Life, a hearing before the University Disciplinary Council (UDC), a hearing before the University Administrative Hearing Officer (AH), or a hearing before the Peer Community Standards Board (PCSB).

The report is presented in one six-month period: July 2004 through December 2004 for a total of 317 cases for the semester.

DEAN’S HEARINGS

Matters that do not warrant separation from the University and/or a permanent record notation are resolved through Dean’s Hearings. If the dean who hears a case determines that a violation of the Standards of Student Conduct occurred, the dean imposes a sanction. In determining an appropriate sanction, the dean considers the nature of the offense, the evidence and testimony available, and the student’s prior disciplinary record, if any. Because a student’s prior record is considered in determining an appropriate sanction, often similar violations result in different outcomes.

Matters that may warrant separation from the University and/or a permanent record notation are resolved through University Administrative (AH) Hearings. When determining an appropriate sanction, the Administrative officer considers the nature of the offense, the evidence and testimony available, and whether or not the student has a prior disciplinary record.
