COE Lecture Series—February 28, 2011, 2:00pm
Wilson 105

Set-up for Success: Prepare Yourself for Work in Great Workplaces

Entering the job market? Come and find out how to relate effectively to managers likely to be at least one generation older than you and team up with co-workers of all ages.

Learn behaviors that will differentiate you and enhance your prospects of long-term success

Discover myths and facts about multigenerational workplaces from a COE 2009 graduate in Wall Street

Katharine White, Bill White, and Alexa Baggio

About our speakers:

Katharine White, MS, and Bill White, MS, are President and CEO of Workplace Renaissance, Inc., a Rhode Island-based company that brings human capital innovations to businesses.

Alexa Baggio, a 2009 COE graduate and founder of Brown Women in Business is an analyst in Bank of America Merrill Lynch.