

America's Founding Fathers and the Classics of Greece and Rome

CLASSICAL ASSOCIATION OF NEW ENGLAND SUMMER INSTITUTE 2013

JULY 15-20, 2013

BROWN UNIVERSITY, PROVIDENCE, RHODE ISLAND

PUBLIC LECTURES

(ALL LECTURES WILL BE HELD IN SMITH-BUONANNO HALL 106
ON THE BROWN UNIVERSITY CAMPUS)

Monday, July 15, 7:00 p.m.

“Roman Corporate Law, Medieval Canon Law, and the American Revolution”

Paul A. Rahe, Hillsdale College

Onassis Lecturer

Thursday, July 18, 10:30 a.m.

The Edward Bradley Lecture

“Inventing a New Genre: Herodotus, Thucydides, and the Challenge of Writing Large-Scale Prose History”

Kurt Raaflaub, Brown University

Tuesday, July 16, 10:30 a.m.

The Gloria Duclos Lecture

“Greek ‘Founding Mothers’ and Others”

Deborah Boedeker, Brown University

Thursday, July 18, 3:00 p.m.

The Matthew Wiencke Lecture

“The Emperor’s Old Clothes: The Triumph as Imperial Court Ceremony”

Geoff Sumi, Mt. Holyoke College

Tuesday, July 16, 7:00 p.m.

“Constitutionalism: Ancient Greek, Modern, and American”

Paul A. Rahe, Hillsdale College

Onassis Lecturer

Friday, July 19, 10:30 a.m.

“Mr. Madison’s Cicero”

Margaret Imber, Bates College

Wednesday, July 17, 10:30 a.m.

“Virgil From the 18th to the 19th Century”

Richard Thomas, Harvard University

Friday, July 19, 3:00 p.m.

The Phyllis Katz Lecture

“The New Cincinnatus”

Ellen Perry, The College of the Holy Cross

Wednesday, July 17, 7:00 p.m.

“Classical Greek Republicanism and Montesquieu’s
Question: Can a Republic Be Established and Sustained as an Extended Territory?”

Paul A. Rahe, Hillsdale College

Onassis Lecturer

Saturday, July 20, 10:30 a.m.

“Classics in a Post-Colonial Context: The Case of Zimbabwe”

Kathleen Coleman, Harvard University

Sponsors

The Classical Association of New England

The University Seminars Program of the Alexander S. Onassis Public Benefit Foundation (U.S.A.)

The Department of Classics, Brown University

