2018 Brown University’s SPRING Fellowship Events & Deadlines

Campus Deadlines

- Rhodes Scholarship
  August 1, 2018

- Marshall Scholarship
  August 1, 2018

- Mitchell Scholarship
  August 1, 2018

- Schwarzman Scholarship
  August 3, 2018

- Fulbright Scholarship
  August 10, 2018

April 5, 2018
5:00pm-6:30pm
Fulbright 101
85 Waterman, Rm 130 (formally BERT 130)

April 10, 2018
5:00pm-6:30pm
Nationally Competitive Fellowships for First-years & Sophomores: Looking Ahead
Smith-Buonanno, Rm 106

April 12, 2018
3:00pm-4:30pm
Schwarzman Scholars Info Session presented by Outreach & Selection Officer, Julia Cunico Garder
Maddock Alumni Center, The Brian Room

April 17, 2018
4:00pm-5:30pm
Fulbright Getting Started Workshop #1
Petteruti Lounge, Stephen Robert ’62 Campus Center

This workshop will center on the Fulbright project proposal essays for research and ETA awards as well as the personal statement. We will discuss the difference among these types of essays and the key elements that each needs to have. For students planning to propose an independent research project, we will provide a step by step guide to writing a research proposal. For those who plan to apply for an ETA, we’ll provide a detailed explanation of how to put together a strong ETA proposal. And finally for candidates who wish to apply for a graduate program abroad, we will discuss how to best write a proposal for a graduate program abroad. The workshop will emphasize drafting essays and will also address troubleshooting while a project or plan is evolving.

April 24, 2018
4:00pm-5:30pm
Fulbright Getting Started Workshop #2
Petteruti Lounge, Stephen Robert ’62 Campus Center

This workshop will give participants a chance to look closely at samples of winning application essays—both independent research/study grant application essays and English Teaching Assistantship application essays. We will look at these samples together and observe and discuss their organization as well as their strengths and weaknesses. If time permits, we will also ask participants to begin to prepare an outline of one or both of their Fulbright essays—the project proposal and/or the personal statement. This workshop should give students a sense of the various kinds of approaches one can take in preparing a successful Fulbright application.

* A pre-application date has been set for these awards. For more information visit the Fellowships@brown website.

Sponsored by the Office of the Dean of the College