Buenos Aires
ARGENTINA
University Studies Program

Consortium for Advanced Studies Abroad (CASA) Program in Argentina

Buenos Aires, the capital and largest city of Argentina, is a cosmopolitan center known for its European flavor and sophisticated culture. Considered “the Paris of South America,” Buenos Aires has grown from a Spanish colonial capital founded in 1536 into a dynamic international city made up of a complex system of neighborhoods, each with its own distinct flavor.

At A Glance

Program Dates: Fall semester (late July – mid-December) or spring semester (late February – early July)

Language of Instruction: Spanish

Housing: Local families selected by the on-site staff

Eligibility: Open to Brown undergraduate students and students from other CASA member schools. Applications are encouraged and open to visiting students outside of the CASA consortium.

Requirements: Students must be in good academic standing and have completed Advanced Spanish II/HISP 0600 or higher (sixth semester college-level Spanish language), or the equivalent.

Courses

Students directly enroll in courses at one or more Argentinean partner universities. The typical course load is three university courses plus one course offered by the program’s academic center.

Visit brown.edu/oip for more information.

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

+ Required pro-seminar course at the beginning of the semester introduces students to the local context through cultural activities, excursions and lectures.

+ Students can explore social, cultural and professional opportunities beyond the classroom through volunteering activity and non-credit internships.

Host Institution

Brown University is a member of the Consortium for Advanced Studies Abroad (CASA), which partners with four leading institutions of higher learning in Argentina:

- Universidad de Buenos Aires (UBA)
- Universidad Torcuato Di Tella
- Universidad de San Andrés
- Universidad Nacional de las Artes

Consortium for Advanced Studies Abroad (CASA)

The Brown in Argentina program is offered by the Consortium for Advanced Studies Abroad (CASA), which is comprised of 11 leading research universities in the U.S. and abroad.