Summer 2014 Contemplative Practice Grants

The Brown University Contemplative Studies Initiative, with the support of the Hershey Family Foundation, announces a program of grants of up to $400 each to support Brown Arts and Sciences students who would like to participate in a Contemplative Retreat in the summer of 2014.

Specifications:

1. Funds will be awarded on a sliding scale depending on the length of the retreat.
2. All Contemplative Traditions will be supported.
3. Funding is given for the costs of the retreat (e.g. tuition, room, board) and not for transportation to or from the retreat.
4. Grantees will be expected to provide a short summary (3-4 pages) of their retreat experience before receiving their funding.
5. To apply please send the following information:
   A. Name
   B. Class
   C. Concentration
   D. Retreat Program and Location
   E. Length of the Retreat
   F. Itemized (if available) list of costs of the Retreat
   G. Rationale for how the retreat fits into your overall plan of contemplative study and practice

DEADLINE FOR RECEIPT OF COMPLETE APPLICATIONS: MAY 05, 2014
(Applications Will Be Accepted After This Date As Long As Funds Are Available.)

Awards will be announced by May 13, 2014.

Please email completed applications to the Contemplative Practice Grant Committee Administrator, Ms. Tina Creamer: Tina_Creamer@Brown.edu.
