THE COMPARATIVE LITERATURE DUG PRESENTS:

HOW TO CATCH A GHOST:
CASE STUDIES IN TIME
PROFESSOR ALANI HICKS-BARTLETT

DEC. 1, 2021 6-7 PM
LIST ART CENTER ROOM 110
REFRESHMENTS WILL BE SERVED!

Professor Hicks-Bartlett is Assistant Professor in the Departments of Comparative Literature and French and Francophone Studies, with affiliations in the Program in Medieval Studies and the Center for the Study of the Early Modern World. Her current projects focus on violence, gender, and race in Medieval and Early Modern literature, representations of disability in Medieval and Early Modern prose compositions, Early Modern Tragedy, and Medieval and Early Modern women's writing and the (proto)feminist complaint tradition.

INTERESTED? Scan the QR code to RSVP!