

THE AMERICAN DREAM – A DREAM TURNED GERMAN: IMMIGRATION, INTEGRATION, AND CITIZENSHIP IN GERMANY

Jagoda Marinić is a prize-winning author and essayist from Germany. She speaks and writes in prominent venues about identity, migration, citizenship, and integration. In 2012, she became the founding Director of the Interkulturelles Zentrum Heidelberg, which has since become a model structure for welcoming and integrating new citizens to Germany and Europe.

Lecture:

Monday, October 17, 2016

4:00 pm

Watson Institute Joukowsky Forum

111 Thayer Street

Reception to follow

Reading (in German):

Tuesday, October 18, 2016

6:00 pm

Kassar-Fox Auditorium

151 Thayer Street

JAGODA MARINIĆ

Author of
*Made in Germany: Was ist
Deutsch in Deutschland?*

BROWN

GERMANY MEETS THE U.S.

Sponsored by Brown's Department of German Studies, German DUG, German Club, the Charles K. Colver Lectureship Fund and the German Information Center, USA, and the German Embassy, Washington DC