

The Department of German Studies is pleased to present

NICOLE SÜTTERLIN

(Harvard University)

“Poetics of Trauma: The Emergence of a New Paradigm in the Age of Goethe”

Nicole Sütterlin is Assistant Professor of Germanic Languages and Literatures at Harvard University. She completed her Ph.D. in Switzerland, at the University of Basel. Her research and publications encompass the Age of Goethe; Romanticism; contemporary literature; trauma studies; poetics and politics of the body; literature and science; literature and social justice; literary theory (particularly discourse analysis), deconstruction, and Wissenspoetik.

Tuesday,
November 7th,
5:30pm
Maddock Alumni Center
Brian Room
38 Brown Street

Free and open to the public