Orientation 2022

We look forward to welcoming you to Brown's vibrant intellectual community!

All-Student Graduate Orientation is Tuesday, August 30, Wednesday and August 31, ending with a Resource Fair on Thursday, September 1. Meet new people in and out of your degree program, learn about Brown's academic culture and expectations and get practical information about Graduate School and University resources. Most sessions will be available to attend both in person and virtually.

Registration will be required for all Orientations and available in early August. Schedules will also be available on the Admitted Students Guide webpage in early August.

What's happening this summer?

- Master's Student Ice Cream Social | Tuesday, July 26 | 4-5:30pm | 225 Dyer Street (no registration required)
- Virtual Banking & Cell Phone Fair | Wednesday, July 27 | 10:00-11:30am | Online via Zoom | Registration required
(We'll also be offering an in person version during International Orientation)

International Graduate Student Orientation runs August 24-26, 2022 and Student of Color Orientation will be held on August 28-29, 2022. Your program may also have additional introductory sessions for you to attend. Schedules will also be available in early August.

Sincerely,
