Prerequisite

HISP0600  Advanced Spanish II (or relevant placement score)

The overall requirement is a minimum of ten courses, at least six of which must be taken in the Department of Hispanic Studies. These include:

1) Between one and three 700-level courses in Hispanic Studies, including at least one of:
   - HISP0730  Early and Contemporary Writers of Spanish America
   - HISP0740  Intensive Survey of Spanish Literature
   - HISP0760  Transatlantic Crossings: Readings in Hispanic Literatures

Please note that if you have received a 5 on the AP Spanish Literature Exam you are not required to take a course at the 700 level though may elect to do so if you choose.

- At least three 1000-level courses in Hispanic Studies
  These provide more specialized preparation in major areas of Hispanic Studies, including works and topics from across the centuries and pertaining to both Spain and Latin America.

- One Hispanic Studies course with the WRIT designation.

- Remaining Courses:
  While concentrators may elect to fill all ten requirements in the Department of Hispanic Studies, they are reminded that up to four related courses from Study Abroad, transfer credit, and other departments at Brown (e.g., Comparative Literature, History, Ethnic Studies, Anthropology) may be applied toward the concentration in Hispanic Studies as long as they deal with Spanish or Latin American themes and/or culture. While there is a list of acceptable related Brown courses on the Hispanic Studies website, individual courses may be discussed with the Concentration Advisor on a case-by-case basis. Please note that a maximum of two courses for the concentration can be taken in English, and one course can be taken S/NC. Students planning to pursue honors in the concentration must take all courses for a grade.

Total Credits = 10

E-Portfolio:
All Hispanic Studies concentrators will be expected to complete the required sections of the concentration E-Portfolio in ASK. We encourage you to share your written work, your projects, and your reflections on concentration-related experiences (study abroad, community work, internships, etc.) with the wider public at Brown and beyond, but only as you see fit.
