Pell Humanities Initiative: Rhode Island Celebrates 50 Years of the NEH

The Pell Humanities Initiative is organized by the Rhode Island Council for the Humanities, the Pell Center for International Relations and Public Policy at Salve Regina University, and the University of Rhode Island Libraries with the goals of honoring Rhode Island's late Senator Claiborne Pell, who helped to found the NEH, and of showcasing the vital contributions of the humanities in our society today.