Fire, Unintended Consequences, and Environmental Justice

Moderated by Scott Frickel, Associate Professor of Sociology

Panelists:
Alissa Cordner, Fighting Fires in a Risky World
Elizabeth Hoover, Pyropolitics and Water Protectors at Standing Rock
Peter Little, Pyropolitics in Ghana's E-Waste Scrapyard
David Pellow, The Fiery Politics of Ecological Justice: Wildfires and Arson, from the Suburbs of Southern California to the Radical Ecological Movement

April 19, 2017 | 2:45pm | IBES 130
85 Waterman Street, Providence

Refreshments will be served.

Sponsored by IBES, the Brown Superfund Research Program, and the Department of Sociology