IBES Summer Internship Program
The Institute at Brown for Environment and Society (IBES) has partnered with the Nature Conservancy’s Palmyra Program to offer a paid summer internship experience through the IBES Summer Internship Program. This award will allow a Brown University student to explore career options and engage in experiential learning activities outside of the classroom. Please note - IBES will provide the intern with a stipend in place of a salary paid by the organization.

Number of Openings: 1

Funding:
- $4,000 stipend (some positions also provide a housing or travel allowance)
- $2,900 Department Summer Earnings Waiver (DSEW) awards for students who qualify

Eligibility
You may apply if you meet ALL of the following criteria:
- You are an active Brown undergraduate student (May 2019 graduates are not eligible).
- If you are studying abroad or on leave: You may apply provided you maintain an active, registered status at Brown.
- International students are eligible to apply, but may be subject to tax withdrawals if their nation of citizenship does not have treaty benefits with the U.S. - please contact the Brown Payroll Office if you have questions regarding this matter.

Program Expectations
- Internships must be 8-12 weeks with students expected to complete a minimum of 320 hours of supervised work. Experience is for the summer only, so work has to be completed by August 31, 2019.
- Students must collaborate with their supervisors to develop and submit a work plan to Dawn_King@brown.edu (cc to jeannel@brown.edu) by May 3, 2019.
- Participants need to provide a one paragraph mid-summer check-in and 1-2 page end of summer summary about their internship experience, as well as, photos taken of them working in the field.
- Selected students and the organizations they work with will be required to submit feedback forms at the end of the internship experience

How to Apply
- We will be accepting online applications via Handshake
- Application deadline is Wednesday, March 13, 11:59pm EST
- Students are strongly encouraged to bring their resume and cover letter to CareerLAB or The Writing Center for review before submitting their application.
- Hiring organizations will directly contact potential candidates they wish to interview.
- Applicants should send inquiries to jeannel@brown.edu, instead of personally contacting organizations.
- Students will be notified of selection status by the end of March

Restrictions:
- These awards may not be combined with other funding from Brown, such as UTRA, Voss Fellowships, IBES ENVS Concentrator Summer Research & Internship Awards, Royce, or Link awards.

Applications Submitted through Handshake at Brown must include the following:
1. Cover Letter explaining your interest in the opportunity and how you believe this experience will benefit you academically & professionally.
2. Current Résumé; you can visit the CareerLAB site for résumé & cover letter tips.
3. Provide contact information for at least one reference (preferably a Brown faculty member, though not required). DON’T send letters of recommendation, just info on how to contact a reference in case organization chooses to ask them about you. Click here to download Reference Contact Information Form.
