ANTISEMITISM: A HISTORY

spring 2020 lecture series

Use QR code or visit bit.ly/2Qxyqvr for updates

02.06  David Nirenberg  (University of Chicago)
2:30-3:20, 111 Thayer Street, Joukowsky Forum
“Anti-Judaism as a System of Thought: The Example of Shakespeare”
5:30-6:30, MacMillan 115, 167 Thayer St.
“Does the Deep History of Anti-Judaism Tell us Anything about its Future?”

02.13  Elli Stern  (Yale University)
2:30-3:20, 111 Thayer Street, Joukowsky Forum
“The Origins of Shylock: Jews and Money”

03.05  Sara Lipton  (Stony Brook University)
2:30-3:20, for location, use QR code or visit bit.ly/2Qxyqvr
“The Agency of Images: Anti-Jewish Iconography, Prejudice, and Violence”

04.02  David Hirsh  (Goldsmiths College)
2:30 - 3:20, for location, use QR code or visit bit.ly/2Qxyqvr
“Anti-Democratic Politics and Antisemitism: The Mainstreaming of Left and Right Wing Populism”

04.23  Ashley Reichelmann  (Virginia Tech)
2:30 - 3:20, for location, use QR code or visit bit.ly/2Qxyqvr
“Hate Speech, Groups, and Crimes: Modern Antisemitism and its Many Forms”

Sponsored by the Program in Judaic Studies and Arthur B. and David B. Jacobson Fund
Open to the public | questions? Contact Judaic@brown.edu or 401-863-3910