CLACS Undergraduate Research Awards

Amount of Grants: Up to $500.00

Purpose: To provide financial support for undergraduate research projects on Latin America and the Caribbean

To apply: Submit a packet of the following materials

1. Cover page with name, email address, and research project title
2. Clear statement of the research objectives and research design (1-2 pages)
3. Timeline for achieving research objectives
4. Detailed, itemized budget
5. List of all sources of support—those committed, and those being sought
6. Letter of recommendation from a faculty member (e.g. thesis advisor)

Email to: Undergraduate and Alumni Coordinator Emma Strother (emma_strother@brown.edu)

Please note: All undergraduates are welcome to apply, however preference will be given to concentrators in Latin American and Caribbean Studies. Award recipients must participate in a Back from the Field panel presentation at the Watson Institute on their supported research.

Review of Applications: Begins February 1st

Email us at clacs@brown.edu or visit our website www.brown.edu/academics/latin-american-caribbean-studies/ for more information