SOURCING SPECIAL COLLECTIONS
How to Use Rare Materials in Illustration

presented by
LILLIAN MELCHER, Illustrator &
SUSAN DOYLE, Associate Professor of Illustration, Rhode Island School of Design

Monday, April 22
5:30 pm - 6:30 pm
at the John Carter Brown Library

Learn from Lillian Melcher — illustrator and creator with Andrea Wulf of the graphic non-fiction work, The Adventures of Alexander Von Humboldt — how research in special collections can inspire illustration. Through a Q&A moderated by Susan Doyle, Chair of RISD’s Illustration Department, and a show and tell of JCB materials, students are invited to ask how rare and historic materials can produce new narratives.
