Applying through the standard AMCAS application:

- Complete your AMCAS Application by November 1. For the 2020 application cycle the MD/PhD program type will not be listed as an option in AMCAS; select Regular MD.
- Select MD/PhD on the AMS Secondary Application. AMS Secondary Application Deadline: December 1.
- Complete the two MD/PhD essay questions on the AMS Secondary Application.
- Interview invitations are sent between September and January. Candidates selected for interviews will be informed if they have been selected to interview for MD only or for the MD/PhD Program.
- Interview days for MD/PhD candidates take place in December, January and February.
- Decisions for the MD/PhD Program are made after all interviews and will be announced by mid-March.
- Questions about applying? Email: mdphd_admissions@brown.edu

Applying from Brown University’s Program in Liberal Medical Education (PLME):

- Complete the AMCAS Application by November 15.
- Request the AMS Admissions Office send a copy of your AMCAS Application to the MD/PhD Office at least two weeks in advance of February 5.
- Request a letter of recommendation from the PLME Office at least two weeks in advance of February 5. A transcript for any coursework taken at Brown University will be included with your PLME Letter, and sent to the MD/PhD Office on your behalf.
- Request a letter of recommendation from a research mentor be sent to the MD/PhD Office at mdphd@brown.edu.
- To complete your application, submit the following to mailto:md-phd@brown.edu by February 5:
  - Official transcripts from any institutions where you have undertaken academic coursework outside of Brown University that does not appear on your Brown University transcript or AMCAS Application.
  - Complete these two MD/PhD essay questions:
    - Describe your background, research experience, and your interest in pursuing a combined MD-PhD program; include your long-term career goals in wanting to become a physician-scientist.
    - Explain your reasons for wanting to complete the MD-PhD program at the Warren Alpert Medical School of Brown University.
- Once materials are reviewed, interviews will be granted for selected students.
- Decisions will be announced by April 16.

Applying as a current Alpert Medical School student:

- Request a letter of recommendation from a research mentor be sent to the MD/PhD Office at mdphd@brown.edu prior to February 5.
- Request the AMS Admissions Office send a copy of your AMCAS Application from the year you applied to AMS to the MD/PhD Office at least two weeks in advance of February 5.
- To complete your application, submit the following to md-phd@brown.edu by February 5:
- Official transcripts from any institutions where you have undertaken academic coursework outside of Brown University that does not appear on your Brown University transcript or AMCAS Application.

- Complete these two MD/PhD essay questions:
  - Describe your background, research experience, and your interest in pursuing a combined MD-PhD program; include your long-term career goals in wanting to become a physician-scientist.
  - Explain your reasons for wanting to complete the MD-PhD program at the Warren Alpert Medical School of Brown University.

- Once materials are reviewed, interviews will be granted for selected students.

- Decisions will be announced by April 16.