Beyond PowerPoint: Presentation Style for Medical Educators

October 23, 2012; 5:30-7:00pm
222 Richmond Street, Room 280

Sponsored by the AMS Program in Educational Faculty Development.

Join us for a combined keynote address and workshop focused on improving presentation styles for medical educators. This session is appropriate for all faculty and residents who teach in large-group and/or lecture formats.

PRESENTERS:

Keynote: Brian Clyne, MD - Assistant Professor of Emergency Medicine
Esther Choo, MD, MPH - Assistant Professor of Emergency Medicine
Tobias Kummer, MD - Clinical Assistant Professor of Emergency Medicine
David Portelli, MD - Clinical Associate Professor of Emergency Medicine

Learning Objectives:
At the conclusion of this activity participation should be able to:

1. identify elements of traditional PowerPoint presentations that should be avoided.
2. analyze different presentation styles for their strengths and weaknesses.
3. select presentation strategies for increasing learner engagement to incorporate into their own teaching.
