Mindfulness, Healing and Empathy in Healthcare

Lecture and Roundtable Series: March 3rd, 2016, 5:30 pm
Smith-Buonanno Hall – Room 106

Susan Bauer-Wu, PhD, RN, FAAN, has a distinctive background as a clinician, academic researcher, meditation practitioner and teacher whose work has focused on mindfulness and contemplative practices in healthcare and higher education. She is president of the Mind and Life Institute, and was previously the Kluge Professor of Contemplative End-of-Life Care and director of the Compassionate Care Initiative at the University of Virginia (UVA) School of Nursing and associate faculty in the UVA Department of Religious Studies and a directorate member of the UVA Contemplative Sciences Center. Besides many academic publications, Susan is the author of the book for the lay public, Leaves Falling Gently: Living Fully with Serious and Life-Limiting Illness through Mindfulness, Compassion, & Connectedness.

Please join us for a reception to follow Dr. Bauer-Wu’s lecture in Suskind Lobby.

NEXT EVENT: A Roundtable Forum: Clinical uses of mindfulness at Alpert-Brown Medicine
March 17th, Case Study Room 270
