The Department of Italian Studies Presents

BLAXPLOITALIAN

100 YEARS OF BLACKNESS IN ITALIAN CINEMA

Screening of Blaxploitalian and Q&A with Fred Kuwornu

Tuesday April 4
Free pizza @ 6PM – film screening 6:30PM
Petterutti Lounge in Campus Center

Italian Studies’ “Italy and Immigration” film series, the Department Undergraduate Group (DUG), MCM and Comparative Literature present Fred "Kudjo" Kuwornu. Kudjo is an Italian-Ghanaian activist, producer, writer and director born and raised in Italy and currently Brooklyn based. He promotes the importance of racial and ethnic diversity by using film and other art forms for building a more inclusive society. His current projects include “Afropeans” about the Black diaspora in Europe, “65” – the 50th Anniversary of the Voting Act and "Blaxploitalian" the documentary about 100 Years of Blackness in Italian cinema.