GIOVANNA BORASI
AROUND AN OBJECT
Giovanna Borasi, Curator of Contemporary Architecture at the Canadian Centre for Architecture, shares how environmental and social issues influence today’s urbanism and architecture.

3.15 630PM
RISD Museum, Metcalf Auditorium
PABLO HELGUERA
ON SOCIAL SCORES
Does art inspire social change? Curator, artist, and educator Pablo Helguera’s (Director of Adult and Academic Programs, MoMA) work involves a variety of pedagogical and participatory strategies. He shares his experience with socially engaged art.

4.5 630PM
RISD Museum, Metcalf Auditorium
SPENCER FINCH
IN GOOD COMPANY
Artist Spencer Finch’s (RISD MFA, Sculpture ’89) recent work and his selection of objects from the Museum’s collection, on view in Painting Air, examine artistic influences and the persistent drive to give form to the intangible.

4.12 630PM
RISD Museum, Metcalf Auditorium
ROBERT BLACKSON
IN THIS PLACE
Curator Robert Blackson (RISD BFA ’97, Sculpture and Director of Exhibitions and Public Programs, Tyler School of Art, Temple University) considers his curatorial collaborations with artists, including Jeremy Deller (Manchester Tracks).