The Department of Italian Studies at Brown invites you to a festival of rare and restored films from the Bologna Cineteca

March 14-17

Martinos Auditorium
Granoff Center for the Arts

Made possible by The Elana Horwich Italian Arts and Culture Fund and the Malcolm S. Forbes Center for Culture and Media Studies

THURSDAY, MARCH 14th at 7pm
Introduction to Il Cinema Ritrovato on Tour 2019 by Massimo Riva
Presentation of "Gelatauro XX - A Mythical Feast"

▷ COPS
directed by Buster Keaton, Eddie Cline. USA, 1922, 20’
English intertitles

▷ SHERLOCK JR.
directed by Buster Keaton, USA. 1924, 45’
English intertitles
Accompanied live by Donald Sosin (piano) and Joanna Seaton (voice and percussions)

FRIDAY, MARCH 15th at 7pm
Introduction to Il Cinema Ritrovato Film Festival (June 2019) by Guy Borlièe (Cineteca of Bologna)

▷ LA FORTUNA DI ESSERE DONNA (Lucky To Be A Woman)
directed by Alessandro Blasetti. Italy, 1955, 96’
In Italian with English subtitles

SATURDAY, MARCH 16th at 7pm

▷ L’ALbero DEGLI ZOCCOLI (The Tree of Wooden Clogs)
directed by Ermanno Olmi. Italy, 1978, 186’
In Italian with English subtitles

SUNDAY, MARCH 17th

▷ 5 pm
HYÈNES (Hyenas)
directed by Djibril Diop Mambety. Senegal, 1992, 110’
Wolof version with English subtitles

▷ 7 pm
SUSPIRIA
directed by Dario Argento. Italy, 1977, 97’
In English
Hosted by BUFF, Brown University Film Forum

Many thanks to
Fondazione Cineteca di Bologna, Organization Friends of the Cineteca di Bologna, Janus Films, The Film Foundation, Metronom, Cohen Collection, Dada Films, Istituto Luce-Cinecittà, Movietime, Pembroke Center for Teaching and Research on Women, and the Center for Slavery and Justice at Brown University